Fayette county set.

To all Sheriffs and Constables in the Commonwealth of Kentucky:

W HEREBEAS I, B. Brent keeper of the public jail of this Commonwealth have this day made out before me James Trotter one of the justices of the peace for said county, That John Smith alias Jeff Walker who was under sentence of death, William Cox, Joshua Powell, John Colbert, John Lad, and Daniel Boyd, criminals in said jail, did on the night of the 24th instant, break and made their escape out of said jail and are now going at large.

These are therefore in the name of the Commonwealth of Kentucky to require you and each of you in your several counties and districts, to make diligent search for them by way of hue and cry, with foot and horse men; and they or either of them so taken to commit to the jail of the county where taken, and the keeper of such jails are hereby required to receive such prisoner or prisoners in their jail and custody, and them safely keep until they can be from thence conveyed to the public jail from whence they escaped.

Given under my hand and seal at Lexington, the 25th day of October, 1794, and of the Commonwealth the Third.

(Seal) JAMES TROTTER.

PHILADELPHIA, October 8.
Extract of a letter from a gentleman of variety, dated Lisbon, August 14.

A Packet has arrived from Falmouth, which brings intelligence of great importance. It appears, that the French armies, on the S. French frontier, have had a series of undate'd repeated successes from the Rhine to the sea; that the Duke of York had retired to Rosenthal; and Prince Coburg beyond the Meuse; that the Austrian army on the Rhine, has been driven beyond that river at Mainz, and the Prussian troops undergen. Hollendorff, after having been almost ruined in six days' battles, have been forced to retreat towards Mayence. In consequence of these retrograde movements, Nièpport, Mons, Antwerp, Namur, "ranchels, Spiras, Liège, &c. have fallen into the hands of the French. Holland is in imminent danger. It seems doubtful whether the Empereur or not about to rejoin the war against France as it is certain he has marched troops into Poland, 100,000 pence, one of the new English ministers is sent on a special mission to the Emperor; probably to know his ultimate intentions; and the Geissler Fogel, who had been sent to Maestricht, if he could no induce Coburg to desist that place, was to proceed to Vienna.

The Roman between Ruffia and the Poet seems to be going on. The Poets are reduced to a situation, in which courage, and the sources derived from despair must save them, if they are to be saved. Sweden and Denmark are angling their full-stocked fleet, and are said to affix a more decided one to the court of London than they have hitherto made use of, and to be treated with more civility by the Empress of Russia, than he had been accustomed to show them.

Lexington, November 22.

Last week the Indians shot a number of horses from men's backs. It is reported that the runaway Indians have lately brought in a number of prisoners to the out posts, and are desirous of making peace with the United States.

Yesterday I had not having arrived with this paper went to Peleg, and there being three due from the Harvard, we are scarcely without news this week.

Forty Dollars reward,

For George and Peter McCourtney,
D E S S E R T E D on the night of the eighth inst. from Genl. Wilkinson's family at Fort Washington, a Michael Moore and Joseph McCourtney, both soldiers in the first Regt. Moore had formerly served in the late major galliard Smith; he is a handsome man, genteel made fellow, of a fair complexion, light hair and blue eyes, five feet nine inches high; has a great variety of good coaths, of which a number were plain; an excellent hair and bair dreser; aged about twenty-four years; when he went off he wore a striped jacket, brown short coat and overalls, round braver hat; frequently wears a bright red silk handkerchief round his neck.

McCourtney is also of a fair complexion, two rudely round shoulders, and frequently fore eyes; six feet high, and about twenty-six years old; he wore when he went away a short silke jacket; they both took rifles with them, one of which is publick property. Whoever will apprehend and detain them or either of them, so that they may be delivered up to any military officer, shall receive the above reward, and all reasonable charges shall be paid.

PAPER MILL

The subscribers hereby inform the tanners and skinners in this state, that they are in want of the remains of their hides called SCRAPS, the ears and other trimmings of hides, and parts of damaged hides, when the hair and hides are taken off, and they layed up, where either rain or sun will come on them, till they are dry, and then floated away for use. Those who live at a distance, may depend, certainly, if they will fare them well, that as soon as they get as many as three hundred weight, and contrive a line to the Piner's hole of that we get wood,
we will feed for them, and send the money, at two pence per pound; or if brought to the mill, will allow for carriage, & those who are within twenty or thirty miles may contribute what they have one hundred weight dry, and we will feed for them. We hope the friends in country manufactory,
will pay attention to the business,
as we need them much in the protection of the business of manufacturing paper.

Mr. Bradford.

THE gentleman who addressed me by the christian name of DAVID, in your Paper dated Saturday November the 8th, 1794, will be pleased to accept my candid and sincere thanks for the friendly, polite and genteel manner in which he has communicated his sentiments. I cannot omit observing that the remarks he has made on those writers who have affixed fictitious names to their performances are very just and highly to be commended and regarded. I have the honor to be with great respect and esteem that gentleman's most obedient and very humble servant,

REUBEN SEARCY.

Mr. Bradford:

IT has been propagated by design to mislead or force other way, that I have quit keeping entertainment, by which means I have lost patron—I would therefore thank you to insert in your next papers that I continue keeping entertainment in Baldwin at my house near the court-house, where I keep as good every thing as this place affords, together with civil usage.

Fayette County.
To all Sheriffs and Constables in the Commonwealth of Kentucky.

WHEREAS James B. Brent, keeper of the public jail, of this Commonwealth, did this day make oath before me, one of the justices of the peace for said county, that Thomas Kennedy of Madison county, a criminal in said jail, did on the night of last night break & make his escape therefrom & is now going at large.

I therefore, in the name of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, to require you and each of you in your respective counties and districts to make diligent search for the said Thomas Kennedy by way of hue and cry, as well with foot as horsemen, and it taken to command to the jail of the county where he was taken, and said jailor is hereby required to receive said prisoner into his jail and custody, and him safely to keep until he can be from thence conveyed to the said public jail from whence he escaped.

Given under my hand and seal at Lexington this 13th day of November 1794.

(Seal) JAMES TROTTER.

IN FAITH, is hereby given to the inhabitants of the State of Kentucky, that we have lately opened a School, in the newly erected house known by the name of Bell Hill, on the Kentucky river, near Card's Ferry, Fayette county, where we (at present) teach Reading, Writing, Arithmetic, and the English grammar. As the school of graduates and scholars presented; we expect to teach the Latin, Greek, Hebrew, and perhaps the French languages, with the Sciences. The tuition of the English language, will be six dollars a child scholar per annum. Boarding may be had in the neighbourhood at eight pounds a year, the one half cash, the other property at cash price, and that (with the schooling) to be paid half yearly. Whoever inclines to favour us with their boys, may rest assured, that the greatest attention will be paid to the education and morals of the students, by

Francis Toshers, Superintendent,
John Atchett, teacher.

November 17. 1794.

THOMAS CHRISTY,
